Disclaimer

The Plymouth Welfare Rights Forum (PWRP) is a non-incorporated not-for-profit platform that brings together third sector and statutory sector agencies dealing with welfare rights in Plymouth. The platform is the environment in which to share information and to work together to resolve difficulties in the area of welfare rights.

By submitting this form, you will be helping PWRP to identify welfare rights problems that may need urgently addressing. With supporting statistical information to hand, PWRP will be better able to bring about changes in social policy.

Please ensure that the details you have entered are correct before submitting the form. It is important that the anonymity of your client is maintained so please do not enter their personal information on this form. The information you do provide will only be used for the purpose stated above.
